At Schad's crossing Saturday work was begun on the new electric railway from Benwood south. The franchise would soon expire if work was not done, and the men were put to work so as to comply with the conditions on which the grant was made. The work will not be pushed to a finish at once.

A Peculiar Accident.

A prominent citizen of Wheeling, like a great many others, had a large, healthy thirst on his hands last Saturday and he proceeded to quench it with mineral water.

He ordered a glass at a well-known saloon, and had gulped down about half of the glass before he discovered that it was ammonia he had been served with through the mistake of the barkeeper.

He had to be given heroic treatment by a physician before he was pronounced out of danger. As it was he had a very close call.

Yesterday afternoon at the city lock-up Squire Gillespie held the preliminary hearing of James Taylor, Jack Green and T. He was discharged and the other two were held in $500 bail for the criminal court, which meets to-day.

The ordinary felonies and misdemeanors to receive the attention of the grand jury to-day are not numerous. Following is the list:

Great Suit Sale.

If there was ever a time when we disregarded every law of profitable merchandising it's now. We've weighed the season's business in the balance, casting out every lot that is broken, every line that is incomplete, every stitch of stock that should have been sold, things that you can wear now, but that'll have no place under our roof at the season's close. Rare bits of value for small purses to feast on; dainty morsels of quality that will deck you out in the fashion of the hour.

Prices That Are Profitless!

Nor yet mere remnants of the cost. We're not merely mounded about it. They are goods WE WANT TO SELL, MUST SELL, and our determination to sell is in every cringing, shrunken price that'll mark the march of our unrelenting, uncompromising, unhesitating slaughter of values. So here goes for this week over four hundred Men's Suits that were $10.00, $15.00, $18.00 and $12.00, any day this week your pick $9.48. MAKE THE BEST OF THEM. WHO WILL TAKE FIRST PICK?

Every day this week every purchaser will be presented with one of the most elegant Fourth of July Souvenirs ever presented by any house, as they are our own original design, and manufactured exclusively for our own use. Money cannot buy them anywhere. Be sure and secure one. They are bound to be a valuable memento. See our window displays.

Let everybody celebrate the Fourth as it should be celebrated. Let everybody know you are proud of the title of being an American citizen. The Hub's elegant Souvenir Badges will be worn by thousands.
